Three Casualties on U. S. Side of Mexican Border Since Saturday.

Naco, Ariz., Oct. 6.-Private Leroy Bradford of troop G. Tenth United States cavalry, border patrol, was struck in the breast today by a bullet fired from the trenches occupied by troops of General Hill, defending the town of Naco, Sonora, from the attacks of Governor Maytorena.

Bradford was in a trench dug for the protection of the American troops on the border line. His wound is said to be serious. Bradford is the second United States soldier to be struck by Mexican bullets since Maytorena and his Villa adherents began their attack four days ago on the Mexican town. Private Wilson of the same cavalry boy who was hit in the hand by a stray bullet yesterday. Two cavalry horses also have been shot. This loss on the non-combatant side is almost as great as those suffered by the contending Mexican forces.

night. At midnight, last, Colonel Guilfoyle commanding the American troops of border patrol duty, notified General Hill, the Naco garrison commander, that he would be personally held responsible if more Mexican bullets were fired into American territory.

Hill Issues Order. Hill sent an aide to his trenches with messages to his men that death would be the penalty for those who fired across the boundary. Maytorena sent emissaries to Hill last night with a proposition said to have been inspired by General Villa that an armistice be declared pendtes peace conference. Hill declined to answer and Maytorena's Yaqui Indians advanced for an attack, promptly retreated under heavy fire
